ALL IS READY FOR THE TRIAL

Interest Now Centers in the Battle for Life.

GUISSIPPE GUIFRITTA

Must Face the Court Monday Morning.

Most of the Witnesses to be Examined are Italians Who Cannot Speak English.

Prosecuting Attorney John H. Clark has everything in readiness for taking up the Guiffritta murder case next Monday. A special venue has been drawn from which a jury will be selected and it is expected that this work will not require more than half a day.

This will be the first time a murder case has been tried in Marion county since the case in which Jerry Sims, of LaRue, was acquitted for killing George Miller. In view of the fact that the evidence against Guiffritta is purely circumstantial, there is considerable curiosity manifested as to the outcome of the trial.

Guissippe Guiffritta is charged with cold-bloodedly murdering his own brother Luca, and so far as the evidence produced at the preliminary hearing shows, the only feeling between them grew out of a suspicion that Luca had harassed Guissippe in the conduct of a fruit business.

Luca was murdered early Saturday morning, before daylight, when he had gone to the barn to take care of his horse. He was shot from ambush by some person unknown, but the circumstances pointed so strongly to his brother Guissippe that he was indicted, and will consequently face a charge of murder in the first degree. The common pleas court has appointed Charles L. Justice to defend Guiffritta and that gentleman will make a strong fight for his client's life.

Subsequent to the tragedy, a large number of Italians left the city, but about twenty have been subpoenaed as witnesses and for the reason that an interpreter will be necessary during the entire trial, it is expected to make but slow progress.

Guiffritta maintains a seemingly stolid indifference as the time approaches for his trial, but by reason of the fact that the man cannot speak a word of English, it is impossible for the jailor to know how he actually does feel about the matter. It is expected that quite a crowd of the curious will attend the trial, although they will not be able to understand one-half of it.
